- This account is to be maintained by head of the institution and proper cash book is to be maintained for all transactions.
- All students/ parents may be guided to deposit their dues including their fees/ funds/ board of school education, Haryana fees through online money transfers such as net banking, RTGS, debit/ credit card, e- wallet, UPI and other such modes to CWF account.
- The head of the school/ institution will transfer the amount to other funds/ board of school education, Haryana through online transaction as per Govt. instructions only.
- Head of the institution will maintain the record of transaction expenditure of different funds in separate cashbooks.
- The above mentioned CWF account will be a dedicated account out of which no withdrawal will be allowed in cash or through cheque against any bill related to any other fund.
- Students may be given training regarding the use of various methods of online money transfer to deposit their fees/funds on joyful activity day. This will also help them and their parents in cashless transaction of their other expenditures.
- The above procedure of cashless transactions for fees and funds etc. will continue till a cashless money transfer system through bank or any other agency is introduced for this purpose.
